

About the Design Build Institute of America

The Design-Build Institute of America (DBIA) was founded in 1993 to provide a voice for design-build practitioners, to advocate best practices, to create and disseminate educational information, and to furnish advice and support to facility owners and users. Its membership includes design-builders, construction contractors, design professionals, subcontractors, representatives of government agencies, academics and other professionals.

Who Uses Design Build?

Design-Build is the project delivery system of choice on more than 50 percent of the non-residential construction projects in the European Community and more than 70 percent in Japan. In the United States, the private sector's use of design-build has been increasing during the past thirty years, and is found in a wide array of commercial, institutional and industrial applications. In the U.S. sector, the federal government, as well as many states and local governments, employ design-build contracting for a significant percentage of their building programs.

Ewa Beach Golf Club

Ewa Beach Golf Club is designed by Robin Nelson and offers an 18 hole links style championship course. It is a well-kept secret hiding at the far end of the Ewa plains that is always kept in premium shape with best greens and fairways on the island of Oahu. With the Waianae mountain range in the background, you get a unique experience from the very first shot as you tee off over the remains of a kulanakauhale, or ancient Hawaiian fishing village. You will also be visited throughout your round by native species of birds including the 'alae ke'oke'o, 'auku'u, and the endangered ae'o.
