

ACHIEVING DESIGN EXCELLENCE IN A DESIGN-BUILD ENVIRONMENT

Design-build delivery carries with it a team-wide responsibility to gain a full understanding of the owner's intentions and the factors that will drive value into the process and outcome. This panel of experts will review how important clearly defined owner goals and objectives are, how design excellence impacts community development and why team members should be mindful of the lasting impact they have on the built and natural environment and the stakeholders who will rely upon their work for generations to come.
