

LACCD $6.2B BOND PROGRAM UPDATE AND PATHWAY TO THE FUTURE

Tuesday, June 3, 2014

BREAKFAST

7:30am-9:30am at Millennium Biltmore Hotel, LA

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

The LACCD is continuing their major capital improvement program at their nine campuses in Los Angeles County. The District contracted a new Program Manager in 2013 to schedule, budget and determine which projects will be delivered using design-build for the $6.2Bil program. The Program Manager will provide an update on:

- What are the goals of the PMO?
- What is the future of the program?
- How will future projects be delivered?

SPEAKER

Terri Mestas, AECOM
Program Director
Los Angeles Community College District Build Program

Terri Mestas is Director of the LACCD Program Management Office, providing oversight across all functions of the bond program. Ms. Mestas has led teams on a broad range of global contracts with construction values ranging from $100M to $5.1B. She has been responsible for all phases of facility lifecycle processes from master planning, programming and budgeting, through design, construction and commissioning, utilizing a variety of project delivery methods.
