

INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY, MAKE YOUR RFP UNIQUE

Tuesday, May 15, 2012

BREAKFAST 7:30am - 9:30am

Millennium Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles

How do you create the environment that spawns innovation and creativity? How to get to know your team. How to loosen the chains that stifle free thinking. Reverse engineering, "thinking out of the box." How to make the RFP an adventure not a challenge. How do you make the RFP process fun?

What are the tools that will promote openness and allow for that "something special" to rise to the top. How to bring who you are, your passions, your hobbies and sports to a project as an asset? Who is the best person to lead the innovation effort on your team?

How can we think like a Master Builder not like an architect or a contractor? Encounters of the Third Kind! Before AIA and AGC we built in a different way, how do we do it again. Role playing and its importance in bringing innovation to the surface. How to keep the team connected and motivated outside the project meetings.
