

Joint DBIA/SMPS Lunch Program PG&E and Dignity Health - Lessons Learned and Best Practices

This panel discussion will seek perspective from veteran industry leaders Ken Buck and Lofton Moore on the effective integration of design and construction teams, and the design/build delivery method. As Owner representatives for PG&E and Dignity Health respectively, Ken and Lofton will focus on their organization's current outlook of their future capital program needs and bring their diverse backgrounds working within the AEC and Owner realms to this lively and candid discussion.
